Lt. Governor Polito Continues “Building Stronger Communities” Tour in Lowell

Lt. Governor Set to Discuss New Executive Order to Elevate Municipalities, Chapter 90 Funds

Boston – On Friday, Lt. Governor Karyn Polito will continue the “Building Stronger Communities” tour to meet with state and local officials in Lowell to discuss the Baker Administration’s first Executive Order to create the “Community Compact Cabinet.”

The Executive Order, signed into law last Friday, is set to elevate municipalities and strengthen relationships between all communities and the Governor’s Office, creating improved partnerships and mutual standards for every city and town. Click here to read the Executive Order.

Polito will also discuss the recent release of $100 million in Chapter 90 funding for local road and bridge repairs. As promised, the Baker Administration unleashed these funds as their first act in office on January 8th.

The meeting will be attended by Lowell Mayor Rodney Elliott, City Manager Kevin Murphy, Congresswoman Niki Tsongas, State Sen. Eileen Donoghue, State Rep. Tom Golden, State Rep. David Nangle and State Rep. Rady Mom.
